

Mr. Farnan, you can run, but you can't hide, looks like the FOFPD got you really wet! Thanks Tammy for the picture!

Some children taking a break by the FOFPD ambulance after being sprayed!

Thad Cochran, catcher, and grandson of Tammy and Daniel Potter

Each year the Fort Osage Fire Protection District comes by Buckner Elementary School and turns on the fire hoses. It's a tradition and they spray the outgoing fourth grade students that will be leaving for the Upper elementary school this coming fall. It's a fun time for everyone and a tradition that all enjoy! Good luck in your new school next year!

If you have a picture you would like to share with our readers, first birthday, first haircut, prom, new baby, anniversary, etc. please email us at editor@gazetteweekly.com We would love to publish them for the communities that we serve to enjoy! They always say, a picture is worth a thousand words! Have a great week!

This is Jayci Cochran who went to Rocky Mount Assembly of Gods camp with the youth in the Ozarks. Church camp is life changing! Picture by Tammy Potter

Pictured above is a concrete truck pouring the foundation for the new Buckner City Hall, located on Hudson Street in downtown Buckner. Thanks Kirk for the picture, paychecks in the mail!

Moses Potter, turned one and is now sporting his new "little boy" haircut. Thanks Grandma Tammy for the pictures!