Tuscono's Now Open in Downtown Buckner!

Tuscono's Wood Fired Pizza and Pasta is now open in downtown Buckner.

Kirk and Rene' Kellough, Buckner residents and Fort Osage High School graduates have opened their new business in downtown Buckner. The Kelloughs also own Heating and Cooling Company.

The Kelloughs purchased two buildings and renovations began. It has taken them over a year to transform the run down buildings and make them into a beautiful place in which to dine. Besides several dining areas, they have added a courtyard with a large water feature, and tables and chairs for your outdoor dining pleasure.

They are proud to have built from repurposed materials found from the local communities they call home.

The main dining room and brick oven once served as the Buckner Post Office. The brick walls were covered with plaster which was removed to expose the brick during the restaurant renovation. The bead board ceiling is the original ceiling to the building when it was built in the late 1800's.

The flooring in the old post office is not original but is about 150 years old pine and was reclaimed and installed during the renovation to be period correct. The flooring in the south building and wood used to make the tables is pine reclaimed from the same house that was located east of Buckner.

The brick oven is a custom built oven with a four foot rotating cooking surface that cooks at approximately 800 degrees to create a flavor in the food that will keep you coming back. The oven was built with the assistance of Mike Larkin & Larkin Contracting. All of the custom steel work on the oven was done by Herman Esry.

The wood beams and posts in the south building were reclaimed from an old barn in western Kansas. The wrought iron fence around the courtyard came from an old house in Saint Joseph, Mo. All of the trim is reclaimed yellow pine that used to be bleacher seats from a school in Farrgut, Iowa and was hand routed for trim by Blystone Cabinets here in Buckner.

Their pizzas come in two different styles: Old World Style and New York Style. All of their Signature Pies are made Old World Style unless otherwise requested.

Old World Style: On this style they stretch the dough, then place mozzarella slices evenly around the pie, then they place sauce between the slices. You will never get the same bite twice. You might get crust with just cheese, or just sauce, or both!

NY Style: on this style, they stretch the dough, then spread the sauce out evenly around the pie, then they cover the whole thing with shredded mozzarella. This is more typical of how you would find most pizza restaurants making it.

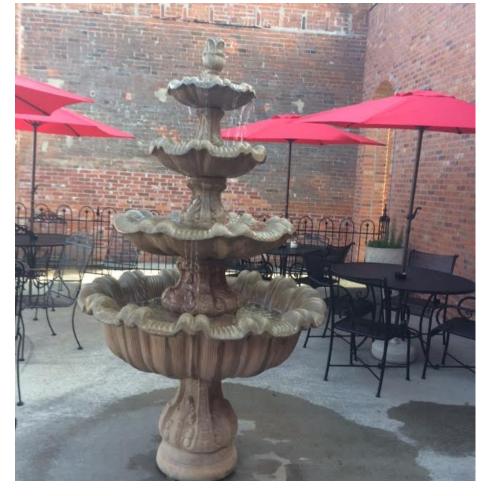

Our family was very fortunate to enjoy a meal at Tuscono's last week. It was an opportunity for the waiters, waitresses and cooks to spend time with the customers.

We had a great time. We chose to eat out in the courtyard, enjoy the gentle breeze and the music, plus the pleasant trickle of the waterfall. I forgot where I was because it was so peaceful and pleasant.

Our waitress was a very nice young lady with a pleasant smile and quiet personality. She made sure we had plenty of water and that everything was perfect.

I must say the food was fantastic and the portions were generous.

It was a great evening and we would give them a perfect 10!
